COPPER CANYON, MÉXICO: HISTORIC RAIL & LODGE-BASED EXPLORATION FOR WOMEN

Deeper and broader than the Grand Canyon, Las Barrancas del Cobre, or the Copper Canyon, has been called "the most spectacular canyon system in all of North America". It is a place of gold and silver, sparkling rivers twisting through steep canyons, sleepy Mexican villages and ancient legends. Adventure Associates was a pioneer of travel to this secluded region 20 years ago. Each day offers a new adventure: breathtaking canyon views perched from a first-class train, hikes to indigenous petroglyphs and cascading waterfalls, and nature walks along the canyon floor to the "Lost Cathedral" of Satevo. Spend time exploring the colonial town of El Fuerte and the rough-and-tumble frontier town of Creel, followed by a dramatic change in scenery as we drive one vertical mile down the canyon to the most remote town in North America, Batopilas. The rich diversity of culture and topography of Copper Canyon is fascinating. The rim of the canyon is a pine, oak and mahogany forest while, a mile lower on the canyon floor, a sub-tropical environment of cactus, palm trees, and citrus trees flourish. Our trip is designed to immerse you in the canyon's magic and culture, as we stay in rustic lodges of historic Mexican villas!

Trip Dates: March 16 - 24, 2013

Oct 18 - 27, 2013

Land Costs: $2175 (min. 9)

DAY 1 (March 16 or Oct 18, 2013)

Depart hometown. Arrive Los Mochis, Mexico (located on the Sea of Cortez). Take a taxi or combi to your comfortable hotel. (Meals and transportation on own.)

DAY 2

Early morning shuttle to the colonial town of El Fuerte. We cross the river to the opposite bank in a rowboat, and hike along the Rio Fuerte exploring ancient Aztec petroglyphs and views of the valley below. Restaurant recommendation for dinner on your own: El Mirador. Overnight in El Fuerte. (B)

DAY 3

After an early breakfast, we board the Chihuahua al Pacifico train in the morning for a full day's journey to Divisadero. The route offers sweeping views into the many drainages of the Copper Canyon - some of the best views are from the window of the train! We traverse the backbone of the Sierra Madre from sea level to 7,000 feet. Enjoy lunch on your own in the dining car, and overnight in a hotel on the edge of the canyon rim - spectacular views! (B, D)

DAY 4

Enjoy a morning hike along the canyon rim to overlooks and cave-dwelling Tarahumaran families, followed by a picnic lunch. Board a private van to overland to Creel (7,867 ft), a small rough and tumble silver-mining frontier town. Enjoy shopping this afternoon at the Mission store, or a visit to the Art museum. Recommended dinner location: Veronica's. Overnight: Creel. (B, L)

DAY 5

Enjoy a full day of hiking around Creel - walk among fascinating geological rock formations in the Valley of the Monks for a sweeping vista of the Continental Divide and loop back towards Creel around serene Arareco Lake. Enjoy a picnic lunch along the way followed by another night in Creel. (L)

DAY 6

First, a long and beautiful day's travel to the canyon floor and the village of Batopilas. Located in the middle of Copper Canyon's tropical fruit producing region, Batopilas is a relaxing little town with ruins from the 17th and 18th century and an air of the wild west. Picnic lunch along the way. Lodging in simple, local accommodations. (L)

DAY 7

Today, we hike into the heart of the Batopilas Canyon to the "Lost Cathedral" of Satevo. The history of this mission is uncertain, but believed to have been built in the 1600's and is presently the center for a small Mexican community. Enjoy a picnic lunch, meet friendly locals and schoolchildren, and relax with a siesta before dinner. (L)

Day 8

Begin our early shuttle back up the canyon, stopping along the way at the Hacienda ruins across the Batopilas River for photos in the morning light. Enjoy a short hike this afternoon to 115-foot tall Cusarare Falls and if there's time, a nearby mission well known for its murals depicting traditional Tarahumaran life. (L, D)

DAY 9

Once again we board our van to soak in the last of the canyon views and travel overland through rolling Apple orchards and flatlands to the vibrant urban center of Chihuahua City. Enjoy a guided afternoon city tour followed by a farewell banquet on your own. Recommended nearby restaurant: La Casona. (B)

Day 10 (March 24, or Oct 27, 2013)

Relax this morning, pack for your trip home. Shuttle to Chihuahua City airport for flight home. End of AA Services. (B)
